

2 access types of system

- System Based (VB.net)
- Web Based
- System based (VB.net)
 - Login
 - Dashboard (Overall / Summary Details of Students and status of Payment)
 - Encoding of subjects and units and amount per unit
 - Enroll student
 - Enroll of RFID Card for specific Student
 - Choose Course, section and subject (Subject should be already listed if the student is regular), amount tuition fee should be auto compute
 - For Irregular student, it will choose specific subject and will count the units and auto compute the amount per units
 - System will send auto generic password and username to student's parent contact number for web access.
 - Processing of payment for student
 - Search of student using RFID card (Details will automatically load on a system)
 - Will enter the amount to be pay
 - If full payment, it will enter the exact amount of the tuition fee and will have an error if the amount that input is not match on the actual tuition fee
 - If installment, will enter desired amount and will auto deduct to the current tuition fee.
 - After the transaction above, system will send transaction number to the registered mobile number of student's parent and the summary of payment
- Web Based system
 - Login using Student ID number and password
 - Dashboard (Summary of payment and history of payment)
 - With profile picture
 - Side bar has an option for (My Subjects, History of Payment, History of School Year)
 - Navigation bar (Colegio de Montalban on the left side and Name of student on the right side)
 - Student Name on the right side of navigation bar, it is a dropdown button and it has an option for the ff:
 - Change Profile Picture
 - Student can choose any image they want to upload for their profile
 - Change password
 - Student need to type the current password, new password and confirm password
 - Forget password bellow the login form of the website
 - Student can request for new password by clicking it
 - Student will direct to a new page and it will ask for student number

- After submitting, the system (vb.net) will detect a request and it will validate the request via student id number and will send a new auto generic password to their parents' mobile number.